ON THE NAIL

Rescue Spa Philadelphia's talented nail technician Sally Man reveals what's trending in nail art.

“Nail art is that special something that makes manicures fun again. Lately people are leaning toward geometric designs—sharp, crisp lines that make you wonder, Was that really done freehand? Nail polish with texture is really starting to get popular, too. Nail Inc. has leather-textured nail polish that actually looks like you have leather on your nails. I love a challenge, so I'm always looking for anything new and exciting.” 1601 Walnut St., 3rd Fl., 215-772-2766; rescuespa.net
